Susan O'Neill with "Last Train To Paradise"*

A variety of styles and disciplines were represented paying homage to the Centennial of the "Eight Wonder of the World" - the completion of the Oversea Railroad in 1912, linking mainland Florida to Key West by rail. It was the vision and investment of Henry Flagler which made the unimaginable feat possible. It was the vision and investment of our talented members that honored his legacy and this important part of Key West History.

Over 550 votes were cast for the People's Choice Awards. The Top Prize of the People's Choice received 42 votes: the winner of a $100 Gift Certificate goes to Susan O'Neill for her acrylic painting "Last Train to Paradise". With 36 votes, 2nd Place and a $50 Gift Certificate goes to Priscilla Coote for her oil painting "Sixty Years Gone: Pigeon Key 1990s". With 32 votes, 3rd Place and winner of a $25 Gift Certificate goes to Bree Buckley for his glass sculpture "Invasive". Works receiving 20 or more votes are recognized as our Honorable Mention runner-ups. Those artists are: Karen Beauprie, MK Clapp, Fran Decker, Nichola DeBiaso, Margo Ellis, Jane Grannis, Sonia Robinson, Jimm Sherrington, & Gale Upmal.

In addition, works by Margo Ellis, Jane Grannis, Pam Hobbs, Sonia Robinson, Diane Savicky, and Judith Zabar were purchased by collectors.

Congratulations to all the winners and exhibiting artists!

LOOKING AHEAD!

We are pleased to offer several opportunities for our members to show their work at TSKW each season. Our member shows are non-juried and open to professional artists as well as emerging students. Our 4th Annual Summer Salon is scheduled for July 12-29. We are announcing the theme for our Annual Winter Members Show, January 2013.... you have the year ahead to develop a new work- representational, abstract, or conceptual- which addresses the theme "HOME" in the medium and discipline of your choice. Deadlines and details will be forthcoming in the months ahead.
