

PROPOSE A CLASS

Thank you for your interest in proposing a program at The Studios of Key West. This page provides an overview of the program and the materials you'll need to prepare before submitting a proposal.

Quick Notes

- The proposal period is open January–June annually. Selections are made in the summer with notifications sent out in mid–August for the following season.
- Our workshop season runs October–July.
- There is no fee to submit. Submissions are accepted via slideroom.com only.
- Classes and workshops range from single-session offerings to multi-week courses.

About the Classes Program

Each year, The Studios offers over 70 classes and workshops in a range of media for artists from beginners to professionals. We have two classrooms: one for physical media like painting and sculpture, and a Design Lab for classes in digital media and writing. In addition, the Helmerich Theater serves as the perfect space for performing arts and movement classes.

Please note: The Studios does not typically cover instructor housing for classes, but if it would be required for your class to take place, you may ask for special consideration in your proposal.

Class Proposal Details

The information below is a preview of the questions and materials you will be asked to provide in the online proposal form.

- Proposed title and narrative summary of your workshop or class.
- Your general availability (evenings? specific months?)
- Skill level for workshop participants.
- Ideal number of participants, or minimum/maximum of students.
- Required materials.
- Proposed workshop duration (e.g. half day, 1 day, 2 afternoons, etc.).
- Other information that would be useful in our consideration and planning.

Images

- Please attach up to 5 images in support of your proposal.

Resume

- You may also include a resume in support of your proposal (this step is optional).
